Today's second reading (1 John 2:1-5) may seem contradictory. While we are told that we have Jesus as expiation for our sins it also claims we do not know God if we do indeed sin (not follow the commandments). The way of reconciling this passage is to recognize our calling to always strive to keep his commandments so that if ("when") we do not, we can trust that God will still be there to help instantly pick us up in order to strive again!

Recognizing this is a necessary element of living our discipleship. The greatest invitation we have in life is to know God, and part of that recognizes that we are meant to instantly turn to him. Of course we want to always avoid (and never make an excuse to commit) sin, but if we sin we still have a choice. If we choose to stay there and wallow in the sin ("I blew it, so what difference does it make so I might as well stay here for a while") we are only making things worse, more complicated, more painful. The other option is to instantly pray, "God forgive me, help me!" This is not only so we can "stop the bleeding" right away but it can also help us take steps to undo the damage caused by seeking the forgiveness of those we may have harmed by our decisions. There is even the potential for our mistakes to be transformed into something good via a resolve to never make that mistake again—which solidifies our commitment to living the lives we were created to live!

But as great as it is to rely on God's help to get us out of the mire caused by our wrong decisions, the greater invitation is to rely on God's help to avoid the mire in the first place! The teachings of our most-wonderful faith are not to restrict us in misery but to free and protect us for the greatest happiness possible. Yet God knows it is not easy in this world that bombards us with the temptations not just to sin but to not be instruments of God's love for others, and that is precisely why God offers his help every step of the way! But the key is to strive to love as God loves us, because the more we can love the more naturally the adherence to all of God's commandments will flow! Through love, prayer, the sacraments, and pursuing the greatest of relationships possible with God and others, God's love will indeed be perfected within us!

-Fr. Marty

We wish our Pastor Emeritus Fr. Martin Mulqueen a Happy 50th Anniversary of his priesthood!

St. Martin de Porres Catholic Church in Jensen will be having an Anniversary Mass next Sunday, April 21st at 10:00AM - with a lite reception to follow. All are invited.

JUST A LITTLE
Reminder

Although Fr. Martin could only appreciate everyone's presence for liturgies, we must all remember that we are visiting God Himself. Therefore, men should always wear at least a collared shirt as well as slacks, and women should always wear either dresses or appropriate slacks and blouses.

This is not so-much because of modesty (important as that is), but because of respect. The consensus of Biblical scholars agree that the reason Saint Peter put on his outer garments in John 21:7 was to show respect, as he knew he was approaching God. Thank you for your consideration.

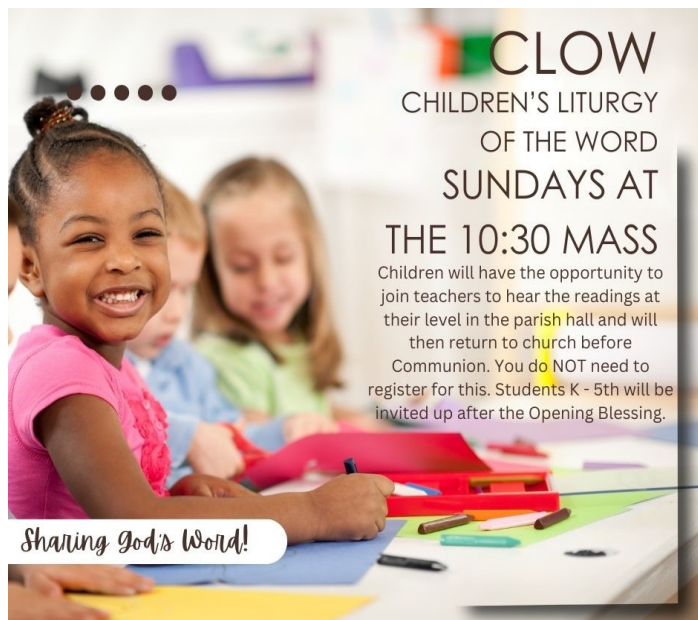

NOTICE: Many have inquired about the meaning of Holy Redeemer's art. A detailed explanation is available on our website. Those who wish for a free hard copy, you can find it on our website or may request one in the front office

Neither Fr. Martin nor any other priest will ever solicit funds via phone text or email. These are scams.

For those requiring low-gluten hosts for weekend Mass, please approach the main priest/celebrant at Communion time & say "gluten free".

If you wish to set an appointment with Fr. Martin, please request so through the receptionist/operator. Please Do not dial-into Fr. Martin's voicemail as prompted by the phone system.

Out of an abundance of caution for security reasons we ask everyone to enter the church building through the main center doors. Thank you.

CLOW
OF THE WORD
SUNDAYS AT
THE 10:30 MASS

Children will have the opportunity to join teachers to hear the readings at their level in the parish hall and will then return to church before Communion. You do NOT need to register for this. Students K - 5th will be invited up after the Opening Blessing.

Sharing God's Word!
