Reflections from Fr. Martin ~ Divine Mercy Sunday ~ April 7th, 2024

Usually I try to go deeper but today I'm not supposed to. I don't have to go deep, but simply celebrate! Not only are we still celebrating Easter Sunday, but in a very real way, I consider Divine Mercy Sunday the greatest celebration of the whole year! There are many reasons for this, but I'll just focus on two today!

First, it's the day we know we can all receive the "clean slate." Decreed by Pope St. John Paul II in 2002; "The most special grace promised by our Lord for Mercy Sunday is nothing less than the equivalent of a complete renewal of baptismal grace in the soul: "complete forgiveness (remission) of sins and punishment."

The plenary indulgence is granted (under the usual conditions of a sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and a prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff) to the faithful who, on Divine Mercy Sunday, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, recite the Our Father and the Creed [which we say in Mass anyway!], and also adding a devout prayer (e.g. Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!).

Second, and even more importantly, God's offer of mercy is precisely why today is meant to be a celebration of God Himself just how much God loves us! The Easter Season is the celebration of Jesus' triumph over death in his Cross and Resurrection—which God did out of our infinite love of us! If we could simply always remember this vastness of God's mercy and love for each of us, we can rest assured we are always striving to remain in the richness of that love! Happy, and Blessed, Divine Mercy Sunday!

-Fr. Marty

JUST A LITTLE
Reminder

Although Fr. Martin could only appreciate everyone's presence for liturgies, we must all remember that we are visiting God Himself. Therefore, men should always wear at least a collared shirt as well as slacks, and women should always wear either dresses or appropriate slacks and blouses.

This is not so-much because of modesty (important as that is), but because of respect. The consensus of Biblical scholars agree that the reason Saint Peter put on his outer garments in John 21:7 was to show respect, as he knew he was approaching God. Thank you for your consideration.

Out of consideration to our fellow parishioners, and respect for those with mobility disabilities, please only park there if you have a physical need to do so. Thank you.

Please Observe the Handicap Parking Signs

Neither Fr. Martin nor any other priest will ever solicit funds via phone text or email. These are scams.

For those requiring low-gluten hosts for weekend Mass, please approach the main priest/celebrant at Communion time & say "gluten free".

If you wish to set an appointment with Fr. Martin, please request so through the receptionist/operator. Please Do not dial-into Fr. Martin's voicemail as prompted by the phone system.

Out of an abundance of caution for security reasons we ask everyone to enter the church building through the main center doors. Thank you.

Tuition Assistance

Tuition Assistance

The Parish Finance Council recognizes the importance of religious education for Children. Holy Redeemer Catholic Church may provide tuition assistance to parish families in accordance with provisions approved by the Parish Finance Council on 10.26.2022.

In order for Holy Redeemer Catholic Church to provide tuition assistance to parish families, there is an expectation that weekly offerings to the "First Collection" will equal an annual minimum of $800. If it is not possible to contribute these funds, attempts will be made by the parish to offer other opportunities for stewardship, on a case by case basis.

Families are required to obtain Tuition Assistance forms from the schools where their students are enrolled. After completing the forms please forward them to the Holy Redeemer Catholic Church's Finance Office for approval. Upon approval, the Finance Office will contact the applicant to pick up the form. It is the Finance Office's suggestion to hand deliver the approved form to the school's billing office for delivery assurance.

Schools will bill Holy Redeemer Catholic Church directly for 50% of the first child's tuition. Tuition Assistance forms for high school students as participating parishioners verifies that the student deserves the Catholic tuition rate.
